The parties jointly request that conference to March 13, 2023, at (Local Code T4).

- 3. The parties stipulate, and request the Court find the following:
- a) Defense counsel has received 131,749 pages of discovery that include, among other things, investigative reports, financial records, and other business records, as well as the contents of two email accounts. Counsel for the defendant would like time to review the evidence, discuss resolution options, research sentencing issues, conduct independent factual investigations, and otherwise prepare for trial.
- b) Counsel for defendant, ROBERT KIRBY WELLS, believes that failure to grant the above-requested continuance would deny counsel the reasonable time necessary for effective preparation, taking into account the exercise of due diligence.
  - c) The government does not object to the continuance.
- d) Based on the above stated findings, the ends of justice served by continuing the case outweigh the interest of the public and the defendant in a trial within the original date prescribed by the Speedy Trial Act.
- e) For the purpose of computing time under the Speedy Trial Act, 18 U.S.C. § 3161, et. seq., within which trial must commence, the time period of January 30, 2023, up to and including, March 13, 2023, is deemed excludable under 18 U.S.C. § 3161(h)(7)(A), (B)(iv) (Local Code T4), as it results from a continuance granted by the Court at the defendant's request on the basis of the Court's finding that the ends of justice served by taking such action outweigh the best interest of the public and defendant in a speedy trial.
